Description

This three-bedroom end of terrace property is located on Lambert Terrace in Widdrington, a small village in Northumberland.

The village offers a range of local amenities including convenience stores, takeaways, an Ofsted approved first school and community centre, as well as regular buses to other nearby towns and villages. Morpeth is a larger market town, just a short drive away, and offers a wider range of shops, supermarkets, cafes, pubs and leisure facilities, as well as further schools and a mainline train station.

Just a few miles from the property is the beautiful Northumbrian coast at Druridge Bay country park, providing beautiful walks or family days out. For other days out nearby, there is the beautiful Carlisle Park, Amble Marina and Northumberland Zoo.

The property itself briefly comprises; Spacious lounge, dining room and kitchen to the ground floor, to the first floor are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom as well as a family bathroom. Externally, the property offers a generous plot, with a wraparound garden laid with patio and gravel to the front of the property, and with lawn and shrubs to the immediate rear. Through the gate at the bottom of the garden, lies a further section of land, currently used as an allotment, with raised beds, mature trees and bushes, ideal for those who enjoy gardening.

With the potential this property offers, we expect a high level of interest. Call the Morpeth office for further information or to book a viewing.
