Description

We are delighted to present this three-bedroom property to the market.

This terraced family home is set in the most convenient location close to Huddersfield Town Centre, with local shops and schools being within proximity, along with useful transport links to adjoining villages.

The ground floor briefly consists of a large lounge, a fitted kitchen, and a cellar.

The first floor is comprised of three good-sized bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally, there is an extensive front garden and, to the rear, a well-proportioned garden.

This stunning home is perfect for any individual/couple/family looking to step onto the property ladder, as this would make an ideal First Time Buy or, in the alternative, a brilliant investment for any prospective Landlord.
