Description

A Spacious and Stylish Timber Lodge in the Heart of Northumberlands National Park

Beautifully presented and generously proportioned, this detached timber lodge enjoys a prime position within the sought-after Otterburn Lodge Estate. Nestled in the charming village of Otterburn—set amid the rolling hills and scenic landscapes of Northumberland National Park—the location offers both peaceful seclusion and convenient access to local amenities.

The lodge is perfectly framed by mature woodlands and features ample private parking. A few steps lead up to an elevated decked terrace, ideal for al fresco dining, relaxing with a good book, or unwinding in the inviting hot tub.

Inside, the lodge is finished to a high standard, offering a bright and spacious open-plan layout that includes a modern kitchen with a comprehensive range of fitted wall and base units and integrated appliances, as well as generous living and dining areas. An internal hallway leads to the well-appointed bedrooms and a stylish bathroom.

This lodge makes this an ideal retreat for couples, families or lucrative holiday-let for investors.
