Wooler — Northumberland's Hidden Gem

Recently voted the 11th best place to live in England and Wales for families, Wooler combines historic charm, excellent amenities, and a vibrant community atmosphere. Nestled at the foot of the Cheviot Hills and bordering Northumberland National Park, it's a haven for walkers, nature lovers, and outdoor enthusiasts. Wooler's High Street boasts a delightful selection of independent shops, pubs, cafes, and essential services. Families will appreciate the highly-rated OFSTED-approved childcare and schools, along with a range of sports clubs including football, cricket, golf, bowling, and tennis. Local Amenities include; First and Middle Schools in town, Senior schools in nearby Alnwick and Berwick, Two doctor's practices, Supermarket and varied retail options, Berwick-upon-Tweed rail station – 17 miles, Newcastle Airport – 46 miles | Edinburgh Airport – 62 miles, Northumberland's stunning coastline – just 15 miles.

The Grounds and Potential

Outside, the beautifully landscaped grounds wrap around the property, offering scenic views in every direction. A stream meanders peacefully through the grounds, adding to the serene charm of the setting. The detached stone garage, with its central archway and twin doors, is currently used for storage, an office, and gym — but it also presents exciting potential as a holiday let or guest annex (subject to planning).

Viewings Highly Recommended

Whether you're seeking a forever family home, a luxury rural retreat, or an exciting investment opportunity, Milburn Hall must be seen to be fully appreciated.

A separate paddock of approximately 2 acres is available by separate negotiation.
