Description

For sale, we have an exceptional traditional terraced house situated in the heart of Mortimer, South Shields. This sizeable property boasts a myriad of features that will cater to all your family needs while offering you the comfort and serenity of a homely abode.

The property exhibits four generously sized bedrooms, ensuring plenty of space and privacy for each member of the household. The bedrooms are all tastefully decorated, exuding a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Within this appealing dwelling, you will find three charming reception rooms. Each is a testament to spacious design, providing ample room for entertainment, relaxation and family gatherings. The versatility of these rooms allows them to be adapted to meet the precise lifestyle needs of your family, be that a playroom, home office or separate dining area.

One family bathroom services the house, complete with modern fixtures and fittings and enough space to navigate your daily routines comfortably.

Perhaps one of the most advantageous features of this property is its traditional character, which resonates throughout. However, practicality is not sacrificed for aesthetic appeal, this home also boasts essential modern amenities such as gas central heating and double glazing throughout, ensuring maximum energy efficiency and a cosy, comfortable environment all year round.

Located in Mortimer, South Shields, you'll be within close reach of local amenities, attractions and well-regarded schools.

In summation, this four-bedroom, three reception room traditional terrace house in Mortimer, South Shields is a wonderful fusion of charm, space and functionality, making it the perfect place to call home. We highly recommend a viewing to fully appreciate what this property has to offer.
