Description

Presenting a charming one-bedroom top floor apartment, now offered for sale in the sought-after and peaceful neighbourhood of Benton, Newcastle upon Tyne. The property comprises a well-proportioned reception room, a spacious double bedroom with ample storage, and a modern, fully fitted bathroom. In addition, there is a single detached garage situated to the rear of the building complex.

Originally constructed with careful attention to detail, the apartment offers comfortable and low-maintenance living, making it an excellent choice for first-time buyers, downsizers, or buy-to-let investors. It provides the ideal balance of tranquillity while remaining well connected to Newcastle city centre and a range of local amenities.

The property currently holds an EPC rating of D; however, it has recently undergone refurbishment which is expected to improve this rating. It also falls within Council Tax Band A, adding to its affordability and overall appeal. The property further benefits from a peppercorn lease, meaning no ground rent will be payable, making it an attractive and cost-effective leasehold purchase.

This well-presented apartment offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere and represents a fantastic opportunity to purchase a home in one of Newcastle's most popular residential areas.

Service charge is approximately £1,500 per annum, with the exact figure to be confirmed in due course.

Early viewing is highly recommended. Please contact Pattinson Estate Agents to arrange a viewing, as properties of this type and location are rarely available for long on the market.
