Description

We are pleased to offer for sale this studio apartment that would make a great starter home and has the additional benefit of having its own parking space.

The main building has entrances into the communal areas from both the front and rear and the apartment is located on the first floor.

Once inside the apartment, there is an entrance hall with storage cupboard, a shower room with w.c and hand basin together with an 'L' shaped open plan lounge/bedroom with fitted kitchen that includes an integral cooker and hob.

Although in need of refurbishment and redecoration throughout we feel this is an apartment with large amounts of potential which could be transformed into a lucrative long-term rental investment.

On a 120 year lease from 11 January 1984, there are restrictions for holiday letting however long term letting is permitted.
