Description

Auction ends 7/5/26 @ 12 noon.

We are proud to present this charming, semi-detached house nestled in the joyful community of Cowpen, Blyth. The property, offered for residential sale, stands as a perfect symbol of the harmony between traditional and modern living.

The dwelling boasts three cosy bedrooms that reflect the welcoming and warm environment of the rest of the house. The generous master bedroom draws in a significant amount of natural daylight enhancing the overall spacious feel of the residence. The property maintains a balance with an inviting and practical bathroom which will fulfil your personal needs impeccably.

This charming property also benefits from two captivating reception rooms, which act as the intrinsic social hub of the house. Adorned with high ceilings, the reception rooms engulf you in their aura of welcoming warmth and restfulness. Given the availability of two such spaces, one area could readily be adapted into a home office, playroom or additional sitting area according to your lifestyle needs.

The house itself is an epitome of the tasteful blend between traditional architectural structure and contemporary design elements. Its locality adds further appeal. Cowpen, a tranquil hamlet in Blyth, bestows upon its residents the luxury of serene living yet offers easy accessibility to amenities like local shops, diverse eateries, parks, and highly reputed schools.

This house isn't just a dwelling; it's a lifestyle that suits families who cherish peace along with convenience. The distinctive charm that embraces this property makes it a coveted choice amongst modern day patrons. Be swift to schedule a viewing, as properties of this nature are rare to come by.

This is a splendid opportunity to acquire a sterling property in an admirable part of Blyth, that is steeped in comfort and convenience.
