Description

This beautiful stone-built cottage is ideally situated in the heart of Morpeth, on the highly desirable Bennetts Walk.

Perfectly positioned for convenient town-centre living, the property is just a short walk from a fantastic range of amenities, including supermarkets, clothing stores, independent boutiques, salons, cafés and restaurants, as well as leisure facilities and Ofsted-approved schools for all ages. Morpeth also benefits from excellent transport links, with a mainline railway station providing services to Newcastle city centre, Edinburgh and London, alongside regular bus services connecting the town with surrounding villages and nearby towns.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, a variety of picturesque riverside walks can be found close by. Carlisle Park, situated along the banks of the River Wansbeck, offers something for all ages, including a play park, rowing boats, skate park and bowling greens. The surrounding area also boasts an abundance of attractions and days out, including the beautiful beaches at Cresswell and Newbiggin, Northumberland Zoo and Northumberlandia.

The cottage itself offers well-presented and characterful accommodation arranged over two floors. To the ground floor is an entrance hallway, a spacious lounge featuring a charming log burner, a fitted kitchen, WC and conservatory. To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, with the impressive master bedroom benefiting from an en-suite bathroom and the second bedroom having its own en-suite shower room.

With its central location, character features and excellent accommodation, this property is sure to attract a high level of interest.
