Description

To Be Sold Via Online Auction, Fees Apply.

A substantial double-fronted mixed-use property and flat occupying a prominent position on Neath Road, Briton Ferry.

We are pleased to offer to the market this substantial double-fronted mixed-use property occupying a prominent position on Neath Road, Briton Ferry.

The ground floor comprises a spacious commercial unit, formerly operating as a successful takeaway business. Included within the sale is a fully operational pizza oven together with a range of fixtures, fittings, and catering equipment, providing an opportunity for a purchaser to utilise the premises without significant additional setup costs.

To the rear of the property is a self-contained also vacant, residential flat, while the first floor comprises an additional flat held on a 69-year leasehold. The sale includes the freehold interest in the building, offering ownership of both the commercial premises and the rear residential accommodation.

Combining commercial and residential elements under one ownership, this property presents a versatile opportunity in an established location within Briton Ferry.

Suitable for a variety of purchasers, including investors, business owners, or those seeking a mixed-use property, subject to any necessary consents and approvals.

Tenure - Freehold subject to a leasehold flat above the shop which the freehold receives £25per annum from leaseholder.
