Occupying a prominent position on Crown Square in the market town of Kirkbymoorside, this characterful commercial building offers an exciting opportunity for business owners and investors alike.

Arranged over three floors and extending to approximately 1,103 sq ft, 2 Crown Square combines an attractive traditional frontage with generously proportioned accommodation. Presented as a hairdressing salon, the interior provides a useful starting point for a purchaser looking to establish their own business premises or explore alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents.

STEP INSIDE

The ground floor offers two connecting salon spaces, with a large display window bringing natural light into the front room and providing valuable street-facing visibility. The layout allows space for reception, customer seating and workstations, while the second salon area provides further working space.

To the rear are a kitchen, a separate WC and an additional ancillary room, providing practical facilities to support day-to-day business use. The first floor offers a further well-proportioned room with exposed painted ceiling beams, suitable for consideration as additional workspace, a treatment room or an office.

On the second floor, a room with sloping ceilings and rooflights is complemented by a separate shower room, adding further flexibility to the accommodation.

POSITION & POTENTIAL

With its distinctive frontage and town-centre setting, this is a building with plenty of possibilities. Whether continuing a salon-based use or adapting the space for a different business, it offers an opportunity to create premises tailored to a purchaser's requirements, subject to any necessary planning and other approvals.
