Description

This two-bedroom semi-detached house offers comfortable and practical accommodation, suitable for a range of buyers. The property includes a spacious reception room with a bay window providing good natural light, along with French doors leading directly to the rear garden.

The kitchen offers space for essential appliances and features tiled walls, a gas hob, and a window overlooking the garden. Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms with large windows and built-in storage. The bathroom is fitted with modern tiling, a bath with shower over, and a built-in grab rail.

Externally, the property benefits from a generous rear garden with a greenhouse and several seating areas, enclosed by fencing and mature planting. A gated driveway provides off-road parking, and the front garden adds to the property's overall appearance.

Additional features include double-glazed windows, a gas fireplace, and a range of decorative finishes throughout.

Offered for sale by auction, the property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a home with both indoor and outdoor space.
