Description

Details Being Sold via Secure Sale online bidding. Terms & Conditions apply. Starting Bid £500,000 with Pattinson Auctioneers. Located close to the heart of Bowness, yet tucked away in a well established residential area, this four-bedroom dormer bungalow presents a unique opportunity for those with a vision. While in need of renovation, the property offers a canvas ripe for transformation into a dream home, all within a location that appeals for convenience.

Upon entering the property via the porch and into the entrance hall, you follow through to the kitchen which holds potential. With aspect garden views, it has wall and base units, a Franke fitted stainless steel sink, an AEG electric hob, and plumbing for a washing machine. A Samsung fitted oven adds to the kitchen's functionality, making it a space ready to be tailored for the new owner.

The living/dining room is a generous space with excellent natural light from large windows overlooking the rear garden. A feature wood-burning stove fitted in the living room, with ample space for sofas and chairs, offers a focal point for personalisation. This space is a blank canvas, waiting to be brought to life.

Down the hallway is a convenient WC and adjacent bath/shower room with a fitted sink. Opposite you will find bedroom 2, which offers space for a double bed and includes a fitted wardrobe, while Bedroom 4 presents the perfect opportunity for a home office. Bedroom 2, with its fitted wardrobe and views of Claife, offers a peaceful retreat.

The utility room provides additional plumbing and storage solutions and could be a perfect boot room and an alternative access for those with dogs.

Ascend to the first floor to discover Bedroom 1, spacious and light filled, complete with access to an en-suite featuring a fitted three-piece suite. A versatile dormer room can serve as an occasional bedroom or a personalised relaxation space, or a nursery with some restricted head room.

Outside, the sizeable mature garden invites outdoor enjoyment, while a detached garage enhances parking options or storage needs. A replacement veranda would be a superb feature, allowing the new owners a great outdoor retreat and entertainment space. The rear of the property, accessible via the living room, further enhancing the property's potential.

This bungalow is more than a home; it's a rare opportunity to craft a bespoke living space in a coveted location. Embrace the chance to create your ideal retreat in this wonderful part of the lake district.
