Ersham Farmhouse – A Rare Generational Opportunity.

Offered to the market for the very first time, Ersham Farmhouse has been the cherished home of three generations of farmers. This exceptional five-bedroom detached Georgian-style residence is rich in both charm and elegance, inside and out.

The property is accompanied by a substantial detached part-flint granary (not listed), presenting an exciting opportunity for conversion into an annexe or office space, subject to the necessary planning permissions and consents.

Internally, the house is flooded with natural light and offers beautifully proportioned accommodation. A grand entrance hallway with a sweeping staircase sets the tone, leading to a cloakroom, formal dining room, and an elegant drawing room featuring a wood-burning stove. The spacious kitchen/diner is fitted with a traditional four-oven AGA, complemented by a large utility room, an additional reception room ideal as a home office, and a practical boot room.

Upstairs, there are five generously sized double bedrooms, each with its own vanity basin. The principal bedroom enjoys a dual aspect and benefits from an en-suite shower room with bath and WC.

Set within generous grounds, the home benefits from two gated driveways providing ample parking, along with a large south-facing garden and patio area—perfectly positioned to be enjoyed from the sitting room.
