Description

Presenting this charming two-bedroom, end of terrace stone-built cottage located in the picturesque area of Shotley Bridge, Consett. Oozing character and warmth, this residential property is immaculately presented for immediate sale.

As you enter the property, you are quickly drawn into a good-sized open plan lounge and kitchen, designed for modern day living. The kitchen has a great sized island and breakfast bar that is ideal for hosting cosy evenings, while the kitchen area has ample cupboard space for storage. The living room has a stove fireplace bringing country charm, while having the convenience of being gas operated.

Outside there is a sun-trap communal courtyard but allows space for your own pots, plants and a table and chairs.

Both bedrooms are well presented and of a favourable size. The second could be a good sized, light-filled office, if working from home. Both bedrooms have stripped, stained, original wood floors, while the front bedroom has a walk-in cupboard and boasts gorgeous tree top valley views.

The bathroom is fresh, offering a white suite with overhead shower and modern fittings.

This cherished home boasts gas central heating and double glazing, making it cosy throughout the seasons. The stone-built exterior is pretty, while the front has been recently pointed with lime mortar.

A new roof is another positive to this beautiful property.

This cottage is an excellent opportunity to all potential buyers seeking to experience the welcoming charm of Shotley Bridge, within a homely, comfortable setting. This is a home that offers more than just four walls, but a lifestyle catered to relaxed living in one of Consett's most sought-after locations.
