Description

For Sale via Online Unconditional Auction - Set right in the heart of New Milton, within a secure gated building, this two double bedroom apartment offers a rare balance. Everything on your doorstep, yet a real sense of calm and privacy once you're home.

Inside, the layout is simple and works exactly as you'd want it to. The lounge/diner is the natural hub - a space that comfortably handles everything from working at home to relaxed evenings on the sofa. It's surprisingly peaceful, with an outlook towards the park and surrounding buildings that softens the setting and makes it easy to settle in.

The kitchen sits separately, keeping day-to-day life practical without interrupting the flow of the main living space. It's bright, with an elevated outlook that often opens up to blue sky, and offers plenty of storage alongside a breakfast bar that can flex depending on how you want to use it.

Both bedrooms are genuine doubles, each with built-in wardrobes. The main bedroom benefits from its own en suite, while the second sits quietly to the rear - a naturally cooler room that works well as a guest space or child's bedroom.

The bathrooms are functional and ready to use, with scope to update over time if desired.

Outside, the building is gated and secure, with allocated parking and visitor spaces. Despite its central position, it remains notably quiet and not overlooked - something that's immediately noticeable.

The location is what truly rounds this home off. You're just five minutes from Barton on Sea, where cliff-top walks stretch along the coast with open views across the Solent, and around ten minutes from the New Forest, offering woodland, open heath, and a completely different pace when you want it.

Day-to-day, everything in New Milton, shops, coffee, and essentials - is quite literally on your doorstep.

Whether you're buying your first home, downsizing, investing, or looking for a well-placed second home, this is a property that fits around real life.

Simple, spacious, and easy to live in.
