Attention investors, landlords and developers – this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a terraced property with excellent income potential. Having already undergone partial modernisation, the property now requires the finishing touches, presenting an ideal project for those seeking a straightforward refurbishment with the prospect of a swift return to the rental market.

Positioned on the outskirts of Bishop Auckland, the property benefits from excellent transport links to neighbouring towns and key employment hubs, making it well placed to appeal to tenants, including contractors and professionals working throughout the surrounding area.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, a versatile front reception room which could equally serve as a fourth bedroom, together with a spacious kitchen/dining room. Also to the ground floor is a useful shower area and a separate WC conveniently positioned beneath the staircase.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, providing flexible accommodation suitable for a variety of occupiers.

Externally, the property benefits from on-street parking to the front and an enclosed rear yard offering low-maintenance outside space.

Whether you're looking to expand an existing portfolio, secure your next buy-to-let investment or take on a refurbishment project with strong rental prospects, this property offers outstanding potential and is one not to be missed.
