A three-bedroom semi-detached house situated in a popular location on Norwood Road, St Annes, just a short distance from the beach and seafront, with St Annes town centre and its wide range of shops, cafés, bars and everyday amenities also within easy reach. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation including two reception rooms and three bedrooms, together with a good-sized plot. The house does require a full renovation and modernisation, but offers excellent potential for buyers looking to create a home to their own requirements. An exciting opportunity in a sought-after coastal location, with plenty of scope for improvement and possible future enhancement, subject to any necessary permissions.

Please note there had been a water tank flood within the property. Due to this the water the property has been turned off. Buyers should make their own enquiries prior to bidding.
