Description

A studio apartment, close to great local amenities, road links, near to The Liverpool Women's Hospital and easy distance to the Town Centre. Ideal and a buy to let investment with vacant possession.

Prospective purchasers should be aware that the communal areas within the block are currently in poor and untidy condition. We have also been advised that individuals may be occupying the communal areas without authorisation and prospective purchasers are advised to make their own enquiries and satisfy themselves as to the condition of the communal areas and the wider property before proceeding.

Buyers are advised to seek independent legal advice before proceeding, as there is currently an absent freeholder.
