Pattinson Auction are pleased to bring to the market this plot of land measuring 0.233 acres, well located on Main Street, Aunsby. Aunsby is a small, peaceful village in North Kesteven, Lincolnshire, England. It sits about 10 miles south of Sleaford and just northwest of where the A15 meets the A52. It is a sought-after, quaint location with stunning views and a well-know church, St Thomas a Becket of Canterbury, which often attracts many visitors.

We have been advised that the site has direct access from the main road, with the possibility of connecting services. There currently sits a log cabin on the site, built from new by the vendor in 2017. It has concrete foundations, is doubled grassed and has outstanding views across open fields. There is also a double concrete garage built in the 1980s.

Currently used as a garden, the site has scope for development subject to planning permission. Planning permission has previously been applied for and could be considered again for the erection of a dwelling. Decision notice and proposed plans available on request.
