Description

Right in the heart of Axminster, this expansive five-bedroom home delivers the perfect blend of classic character and modern opportunity. Whether you're dreaming of a grand family base in a thriving market town or hunting for a property with serious investment potential, this one is primed to impress.

Tucked just moments from the shops, cafes, and mainline train station, you'll find generous rooms filled with warmth, a private garden bursting with life, and an outbuilding that's ready for transformation.

Step through the traditional hardwood front door and into a welcoming hallway with painted floorboards and just the right amount of charm.

Lounge, a cosy retreat with window seat, and wooden shutters. Perfect for curling up with a book or hosting relaxed evenings.

Dining Room, exposed brick chimney breast with a wood-burning stove, ideal for family dinners or a sociable dinner party.

Kitchen, bright, functional, and garden-facing. Integrated double oven, five-ring gas hob, and space for all your culinary kit. Back door opens straight onto the patio.

Ground Floor WC, handy for busy mornings or guests.

Upstairs, Space for All

Five double bedrooms mean you'll never be short on space. The front-facing master enjoys its own modern en-suite, while others boast built-in storage, exposed floorboards, or serene garden views. The family bathroom features a bath with shower over, WC, wash basin, and a generous airing cupboard.

The Garden, Your Own Green Escape.

Enclosed, private, and full of character, this garden is made for summer evenings and wildlife watching. A raised lawn and patio area offer space to relax, entertain, or let the kids roam. Double gates to Pig Lane give you practical rear access.

The Outbuilding, Bonus Potential

Currently used for storage and utility room, the outbuilding is ready for its next chapter. You could create guest accommodation, a home office, or a lucrative rental unit. (STP)

For investors, it's a ready-made opportunity. For families, it's a home you can grow into and add value to over time.
