Description

With just 58 apartments, Elizabeth Place fosters a genuine sense of community. Every detail has been considered to support independent living with the reassurance of help when needed.

Security features include a camera entry system, intruder alarms, and a 24-hour emergency call line, ensuring you always feel safe and supported.

The development is just one mile from Market Harborough's vibrant town centre, home to cafés, restaurants, shops, a post office, banks, and a bustling market square. A bus stop just 0.2 miles away makes getting around simple and stress-free.

Step inside and enjoy this south-facing apartment with a walk-out balcony overlooking the landscaped gardens, perfect for a morning coffee or relaxing on a warm evening. The modern kitchen is fully equipped with integrated appliances for move-in ease. The bedroom is a good sized double benefiting from a walk-in wardrobe for smart and easy storage. Finally the contemporary wet room is spacious and includes high quality fittings.

On site all residents benefit from the Estate Manager and 24-hour staff for complete peace of mind. The Bistro Restaurant provides freshly prepared meals and the welcoming communal lounge hosts regular social events to get involved in. Have friends & family visiting - no problem, they can stay in the guest suite making the most of their stay. The landscaped gardens offer a peaceful and tranquil spot to enjoy with neighbours or guests.

With the Town Centre just a five minute bus ride away on the number 33 bus you can access all local amenities. There's plenty for everyone including weekly markets and twice monthly farmers markets.
