Description

Investment Opportunity – Modern One Bedroom Apartment with Strong Rental Appeal

A well-presented and modern first-floor one-bedroom apartment offering an attractive investment opportunity for landlords seeking a low-maintenance addition to their portfolio. Close proximity to Airedale Hospital which has given continuity with the rental sector and therefore minimising empty rental periods. Currently operating as a successful rental property with a current rental of £725 pcm potential yield of circa 8% plus, low management costs. The apartment benefits from a desirable location, excellent transport links, and strong tenant appeal.

Finished to a high standard throughout, the property comprises a spacious entrance hall with useful built-in storage, a bright and generously proportioned living room featuring a large bay window and impressive far-reaching views across the Aire Valley, a modern fitted kitchen, contemporary bathroom and a spacious double bedroom.

The property further benefits from private parking for two vehicles and access to a communal garden area shared with only one other apartment.

Ideally located on a main bus route with convenient connections to Keighley, Skipton and Colne, the property is also within easy reach of Steeton & Silsden railway station, providing direct links to Leeds and Bradford. Airedale Hospital is within walking distance, supporting consistent rental demand from healthcare professionals and other local workers.
