Description

Being sold via Secure Sale online bidding. Terms & Conditions apply. Starting Bid £480,000.

This stunning detached home is set in a highly desirable location within walking distance of Ansdell, with Lytham and St Annes close by and the M55 less than five minutes away.

Beautifully presented throughout, the property offers deceptively spacious accommodation including a large reception room spanning the width of the property, a ground floor double bedroom, bathroom and a modern fitted kitchen with feature island. A superb extension with bifold doors opens onto the impressive rear garden, creating an excellent space for modern family living and entertaining.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms, both with en suites, with one also benefiting from a walk-in wardrobe. The property also enjoys a large private rear garden, ample off street parking and a detached double garage converted into a versatile studio with useful first floor storage.

Early viewing is highly recommended.
