Description

Logan Road, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE6

A Stunning Three-Bedroom Detached Bungalow with Exceptional Living Space, Beautiful Interiors and a Generous Rear Garden

There is much more to this impressive detached bungalow than first meets the eye. Positioned on the well-established residential street of Logan Road, this beautifully presented home offers an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking generous proportions, modern comforts and a layout that can easily adapt to changing lifestyles.

Arranged across two floors, the property has been thoughtfully designed to create a home that feels both spacious and welcoming, with an excellent balance of sociable living areas, comfortable bedrooms and quieter spaces to work or relax.

A particular highlight is the wonderful kitchen and dining room, where everyday practicality meets the pleasure of entertaining. This substantial space offers a stylish range of fitted cabinetry, extensive work surfaces and a central island, providing a natural gathering point for family and friends. The dining area comfortably accommodates a large table, while doors opening onto the rear garden make it easy to enjoy indoor and outdoor living during the warmer months.

Away from the kitchen, the separate lounge provides a more peaceful setting, ideal for cosy evenings or simply unwinding at the end of the day. Generous windows bring in plenty of daylight, giving the room a lovely open and airy feel.

One of the property's greatest advantages is its adaptable accommodation. The ground floor features a comfortable double bedroom, a dedicated study with fitted furniture and a beautifully appointed bathroom with both a bath and separate shower. A conveniently positioned additional WC further enhances the practicality of the home. Whether accommodating guests, working from home or looking for a property with a bedroom and bathroom on the ground floor, the layout offers plenty of possibilities.

The upper floor introduces two further bedrooms, each enjoying its own individual appeal. The principal bedroom is a particularly generous retreat, with excellent space for furnishings and the added convenience of a private WC. The second bedroom also benefits from its own en-suite shower room, providing additional comfort and privacy.

Outside, the rear garden offers a fantastic setting to enjoy time outdoors. Its generous size provides plenty of space for garden furniture, family activities and summer entertaining, while also offering the opportunity to create different areas for relaxing and enjoying the surroundings.

Practicality has certainly not been overlooked, with the added benefit of an adjoining garage, accessible from the kitchen and offering useful storage space.

The location is equally appealing. Logan Road enjoys convenient access to everyday amenities, local schools and transport connections, with Newcastle city centre within easy reach for shopping, dining and leisure opportunities.

What makes this home particularly attractive is the freedom it offers. From its impressive kitchen and generous reception room to its flexible bedroom arrangement and dedicated home office, every part of the accommodation contributes to a home that is as practical as it is inviting.

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented detached property with space to grow, room to entertain and the flexibility to suit a variety of lifestyles.

Properties offering this combination of accommodation and outdoor space deserve a closer look, and an internal viewing is highly recommended.
