Description

Tenanted Investment – Student & Professional Accommodation

A purpose-designed secure entry residential investment offering studio accommodation for students and professionals, situated in the Cathedral quarter of Sheffield City Centre. It is ideally positioned for easy access to the shopping district and public transport, as well as supermarkets and medical facilities. Everything the city has to offer is on the doorstep.

This established accommodation building provides investors with an opportunity to acquire a property designed around the needs of modern renters, combining self-contained studio living with attractive shared communal facilities, offering a more flexible accommodation model.

Further information, tenancy details and investment figures are available upon request.
