Description

Prime Freehold High Street Investment – Station Road, Ashington

An opportunity to acquire a substantial freehold commercial investment occupying a prime and highly visible position on Station Road, Ashington's main High Street.

The property extends to approximately 637.50 sq m (6,862 sq ft) arranged over three floors and is fully let, producing an established income stream with leases in place until 2036, offering long-term security for investors.

The ground and first floors operate as a substantial retail premises with ancillary storage, while the second floor is independently utilised as a dance studio, enhancing diversification of income within the building.

Situated in a strong trading position within Ashington town centre, the property benefits from excellent frontage, consistent pedestrian and vehicular traffic, nearby public parking and close proximity to national and independent occupiers.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a sizeable freehold commercial asset in a dominant High Street position with long-term tenant security and significant future potential.
