Description

A stylish two bedroom balcony apartment forming part of a well kept purpose built development located within a desirable residential road providing good access to Bromley town centre and Shortlands village with local shops and main line station.

The property, which is offered for sale via online auction, comprises: a spacious entrance hallway, superb open plan living room with the kitchen stylishly appointed with a range grey gloss units, solid white stone worktops with breakfast bar and integrated appliances.

The master bedroom provides a full range of fitted wardrobes with integrated lighting to one wall plus allows access to the private south facing balcony. The second bedroom measures 9' x 7' and the well appointed bathroom features a brand new white suite.

With large windows from all rooms featuring a southerly aspect towards the communal grounds, the property is filled with daytime light. It is also worth noting that, although the entrance is on the ground floor, due to the nature of the sloping grounds, to property is effectively raised up to first floor level to the side.
