Description

Introducing this delightful 2-bedroom terraced house situated on Cotsford Park Estate, Horden. This residential sale property is presented in a fantastic condition, ready for a comfortable living experience.

The home comprises two generously sized bedrooms, making it an ideal selection for a small family or property investors. Downstairs, the property is complete with a welcoming reception room offering plenty of room for leisure and relaxation.

One of the standout of features is the modern kitchen which combines style, comfort, and practicality. The space features sleek, handleless cabinets in a soft white colour, paired with a beautiful stone effect worktops. Large windows allow plenty of natural light to fill the room, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere. At the centre of the kitchen is a spacious breakfasting island, providing the perfect place to enjoy a quick breakfast, have a coffee, or socialise with family and friends.

This listing includes a functional, well-maintained bathroom, providing for everyday necessities, and designed with ease and convenience in mind. The house invites copious amounts of natural light, creating a bright and cheerful atmosphere that any homeowner would appreciate.

Not to forget, this property comes with the highly sought-after feature of a personal garage. This gives you additional, secure space for a vehicle or further storage as per your needs. Offering a low maintenance garden which is perfect for a quick breath of fresh air without the worry of extensive care and gardening. Providing enough room for summer barbecues or a serene morning cup of tea, the outdoor area is a delightful extension of the indoor living space.

This charming 2-bedroom terraced house is waiting to be turned into a home by its new owners.
