Description

This charming semi-detached house situated in the pleasant locale of Peterlee is a stunning residential sale opportunity. As you enter the property, you are met with a beautiful open-plan living-dining area which flows effortlessly into the excellently appointed kitchen. The house offers spacious accommodation, showcasing four generously proportioned bedrooms, making it an ideal dwelling for a growing family.

The property also benefits from two well-presented reception rooms, providing versatile spaces that could serve as a home office, children's playroom or a quiet reading corner. Furthermore, three fully equipped bathrooms ensure there's ample convenience and privacy for all residents. An additional, practical feature of this house includes a downstairs W.C., aiding in limiting guest traffic through the more private areas of the home.

This beautifully maintained semi-detached house represents a delightful fusion of space and comfort. It offers a perfect oasis of calm for those looking to settle in Peterlee, while also providing potential buyers with the opportunity to make a savvy residential investment. Viewings are a must to truly appreciate the generously proportioned interiors and versatile living spaces that this unique property has to offer.
