Description

This two-bedroom, semi-detached property is located on Whitefield Crescent in Pegswood, a small ex-mining village in Northumberland.

With local amenities such as convenience stores, cafes and takeaways, an OFSTED approved first school and a doctors surgery, everything you need is on your doorstep. There are regular buses into the larger market town of Morpeth, where there are a wider range of shops including supermarkets, clothing stores, restaurants and leisure facilities, as well as further schools for all ages.

Being located just off the A1 trunk road, the property is well-connected to the North and South, with Newcastle city centre being a short drive away, ideal for those who need to commute.

The property itself benefits from a large lounge and kitchen-diner to the ground floor. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the property has a front yard and rear garden laid with, ideal for al fresco dining.

We expect a high volume of interest in the property, for more information or to book a viewing, please call the Morpeth office.
