Description

Description

A rare opportunity to acquire a historic Grade II listed Georgian cottage built in 1825, originally believed to have been a sweet shop. The property boasts many original features with the present owners having sympathetically modernised including new carpets and floor coverings together with newly redecorated accommodation. The property provides an opportunity to have a living room on both floors plus two double bedrooms and is offered to the market with no onward chain.

Location

The property is located in a prominent position at the top of the High Street, within close proximity of the historic Grade II* listed 'All Saints' Church. The historic village of Lindfield boasts a vast range of period homes, picturesque village pond, large common with play park, medical centre, Co-op and independent shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants. Within 1 mile of the property there are two local primary schools (Lindfield Primary Academy and Blackthorns Community Primary Academy) and one secondary school (Oathall Community Collage).

Being less than two miles from Haywards Heath mainline railway station, the town of Haywards Heath is just south from this with a larger range of restaurants in the Broadway, shops in The Orchards Shopping Centre and supermarkets.
