Description

We are offering a nicely positioned and well proportioned detached family home, well placed within Centurian Way at The Chesters. The home has a wonderful Westerly rear aspect which benefits from not being directly overlooked from beyond, offering a great degree of privacy.

Recently, there have been some significant upgrades made to the home, including a new central heating combination boiler and an upgraded shower room.

The home is presented well with a practical layout, briefly comprising: entrance porch, hall with a return staircase leading to the first floor accommodation. The reception room is a generous sized with a light and airy feel, due to the dual aspect. The breakfasting kitchen is also a good-size, offering rear garden and sun room access. The sun room off the kitchen, is a fantastic place to sit back and relax and offers complete privacy. A useful shower room/WC completes the ground floor accommodation.

On the upper level there is the newly installed stylish shower room and four bedrooms, all of which have built-in furniture.

Parking is not an issue with a driveway and an attached single garage.

Freehold.

Perfectly positioned to provide quick and easy access to the local schools and town centre amenities.
