Description

This robust and spacious semi-detached house is now available to market and offers an extensive family home with fantastic potential for improvement.

Located in the popular Clee Road area, this property enjoys close access to both Grimsby town centre as well as the Cleethorpes seafront and high street areas meaning that there is a rich array of amenities freely available and easily accessed.

This generous house consists of an extensive selection of reception rooms in the form of well-appointed lounge, an expansive kitchen/diner and even a vast conservatory meaning that the property enjoys the benefit of ample floorspace and flexible accommodation.

The first floor consists of three generous bedrooms and the fitted family bathroom.

The extensive potential present in the property includes the chance to make improvements capable of significantly improving the value.

Externally the property boasts a lengthy drive capable of accommodating multiple vehicles while the rear garden is sizable enough, even with the conservatory, to utilise as an appealing family space.

The home also benefits from gas central heating and PVC double glazing.
