Description

A Desirable Detached Home in the Heart of Fatfield Park

Situated within the highly regarded Fatfield Park estate in Washington, this three-bedroom detached home offers an appealing combination of generous outdoor space, versatile accommodation and a desirable residential setting.

The property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms and two reception rooms, creating a flexible layout suited to a variety of lifestyles. The two reception rooms provide excellent versatility, offering space for both comfortable everyday living and entertaining, while the overall accommodation presents an exciting opportunity for a new owner to introduce their own style and personal touches.

One of the property's standout features is its substantial rear garden, offering an abundance of outdoor space with plenty of scope to create an inviting setting for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the warmer months. The garden adds another dimension to the property, complementing the appeal of detached living and providing an attractive outdoor space to make the most of throughout the year.

Further benefits include a garage, providing useful additional storage and practicality. Combined with the property's detached layout and generous outdoor space, this creates an appealing proposition for buyers seeking a home with both flexibility and room to personalise.

The location is undoubtedly a significant part of the property's appeal. Set within the established and sought-after Fatfield Park estate, the home enjoys the attraction of a well-regarded residential address in Washington, making it an appealing choice for those looking to secure a property in this desirable area.

Combining a detached home, three bedrooms, two reception rooms, two bathrooms, a generous rear garden and a garage, this property offers an exciting opportunity to create a home that reflects individual tastes and aspirations, all within a location that speaks for itself.
