Description

Situated on a spacious corner plot, this well-presented property offers generous accommodation throughout and is ideally located close to Chichester Metro Station and the excellent range of amenities available on Stanhope Road.

Perfectly suited to investors or first-time buyers alike, the property combines spacious living with a convenient location and excellent potential.

Internally, the property has been tastefully decorated with modern grey carpets and fresh white walls, creating a bright and neutral finish ready for any buyer to make their own. The large living area benefits from two windows, allowing plenty of natural light to flood the room and creating a bright and airy atmosphere ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.

The kitchen is fitted with contemporary white slab-style units complemented by beige and brown tiled splashbacks, brown worktops, silver accents, and a gas hob, offering both practicality and modern styling. The bathroom is finished with white tiling and includes a bath with over-bath shower, wash basin, and WC.

Externally, the property further benefits from a large rear yard, providing excellent outdoor space with potential for a variety of uses.

Positioned on a generous corner plot in a convenient residential location, this property presents a fantastic opportunity for investors seeking strong rental demand or buyers looking for spacious accommodation close to transport links and local amenities.
